NAVIGATION AND PRINTING

The printed contents links to every office and election cycle. The PDF outline continues through state and individual district or statewide race. Race blocks run continuously instead of forcing one state or contest onto its own page. Every candidate record retained in the archive appears with party, votes, share, and incumbent status when available.

Special-election records remain winner-level when the underlying archive contains no complete candidate tally. A dash means unavailable, not zero. Provisional or uncalled contests are labeled and are not converted into certified outcomes.

Administration term: 1953-01-20 through 1961-01-20. Archive snapshot: 2026-11-08T20:48:09.589Z.

Administration Analysis

Dwight D. Eisenhower won decisive presidential victories in 1952 and 1956, but congressional control moved independently. Republicans narrowly organized both chambers after 1952; Democrats captured the House and organized the Senate after the 1954 midterm, retained both in 1956, and expanded sharply in 1958. Alaska and Hawaii then enlarged both chambers during the 86th Congress.

ELECTION	PRESIDENT	HOUSE AFTER ELECTION	SENATE AFTER ELECTION
1952	Republican	R 221 - D 213 - I 1	R 48 - D 47 - I 1
1954	Republican	D 232 - R 203	D 47 + I 2 - R 47
1956	Republican	D 234 - R 201	D 49 - R 47
1958	Republican	D 283 - R 153 after Alaska	D 64 - R 34 after Alaska
1959	Republican	D 284 - R 153 after Hawaii	D 65 - R 35 after Hawaii

1952 ELECTION ENVIRONMENT

Eisenhower won 442 electoral votes to Stevenson's 89 and led the structured national popular tally by 6,622,260 votes. The House ledger is R 221 - D 213 - I 1. The 83rd Senate opened R 48 - D 47 - I 1; the Senate race ledger retains 36 distinct regular and short-term ballot contests.

1954 ELECTION ENVIRONMENT

Democrats captured the House, D 232 - R 203. The 84th Senate opened with 47 Democrats, 47 Republicans, and two independents who caucused with Democrats. Forty separate Senate ballot contests are retained, including parallel short-term and full-term choices in Nebraska and Wyoming.

Presidential Results

State popular-vote totals use structured transcriptions of the Clerk election books. National electoral allocations follow the National Archives: Eisenhower won 442-89 in 1952 and 457-73 in 1956; one Alabama elector cast a 1956 presidential vote for Walter B. Jones. The District of Columbia did not vote for president in either election.

1952 Presidential Election

Eisenhower won 442 electoral votes to Stevenson's 89 and led the structured national popular tally by 6,622,260 votes. The House ledger is R 221 - D 213 - I 1. The 83rd Senate opened R 48 - D 47 - I 1; the Senate race ledger retains 36 distinct regular and short-term ballot contests.

Methodology and Sources

METHOD. Regular contests are grouped by office, cycle, state, and district. Every candidate object in the archive is rendered. Vote and percentage fields are printed only when present. Presidential electoral allocations, special circumstances, certification status, incumbency flags, and prior-cycle comparisons are retained where available. The dense layout removes forced state page breaks but does not remove race data.

KNOWN LIMITS

- The official 1952, 1954, 1956, and 1958 Clerk publications are image-only scans. Structured state transcriptions are used for the searchable candidate ledger and are checked against official chamber outcomes and national recapitulations.

- Some state tables omit unopposed returns or contain partial local totals. Those contests retain the certified winner and reported share while unavailable candidate vote fields remain blank rather than being estimated.

- Maine held its congressional elections in September during these cycles. Presidential voting still occurred in November, so the 1952 and 1956 Maine records combine separate official election dates without treating either as a duplicate.

- North Dakota and New Mexico elected two representatives from one statewide multi-member at-large ballot in every regular cycle. Each seat is indexed separately, but each shared ballot is counted once in national vote aggregation.

- The Senate ledger counts ballot contests, not only six-year seats. When voters chose both a short-term successor and a full-term senator on separate ballot lines, both contests are retained. Charles E. Potter won two Michigan ballots in 1952, and Joseph C. O'Mahoney won two Wyoming ballots in 1954.

- Alaska's November 25, 1958 statehood election added one House member and two senators when statehood took effect January 3, 1959. Hawaii's July 28, 1959 election added one House member and two senators when statehood took effect August 21, 1959.

- The House moved from 435 voting members to 436 with Alaska and 437 with Hawaii. The Senate moved from 96 members to 98 and then 100. Cycle-level chamber control notes distinguish election winners from the later statehood additions.

- Strom Thurmond's 1954 South Carolina write-in victory is classified with the Democratic caucus for this period. Usher Burdick's North Dakota Nonpartisan League affiliation is classified with the Republican House organization.

- One 1956 Alabama elector voted for Walter B. Jones rather than Adlai Stevenson. The state popular-vote winner remains Stevenson; the electoral ledger preserves the final 457-73-1 allocation.

- The special-election section is a complete winner register for voting House seats during the scoped term and does not claim complete candidate vote totals. Territorial delegate vacancies are excluded.

- The 1960 regular presidential and congressional election is reserved for the Kennedy volume. Eisenhower's volume ends with House special elections held through January 19, 1961.
