NAVIGATION AND PRINTING

The printed contents links to every office and election cycle. The PDF outline continues through state and individual district or statewide race. Race blocks run continuously instead of forcing one state or contest onto its own page. Every candidate record retained in the archive appears with party, votes, share, and incumbent status when available.

Special-election records remain winner-level when the underlying archive contains no complete candidate tally. A dash means unavailable, not zero. Provisional or uncalled contests are labeled and are not converted into certified outcomes.

Administration term: 2001-01-20 through 2009-01-20. Archive snapshot: 2026-11-08T17:45:05.262Z.

Administration Analysis

Bush entered office after the disputed 2000 election with a narrow Republican House majority and a 50-50 Senate, gained congressional seats in the post-September 11 2002 midterm, won reelection and expanded Republican control in 2004, lost both chambers in the 2006 Democratic wave, and left office after the financial-crisis election of 2008 produced unified Democratic control.

ELECTION	PRESIDENT	HOUSE AFTER ELECTION	SENATE AFTER ELECTION
2000	Republican	R 221 - D 212 - I 2	50-50; Republican control through the vice president
2002	Republican	R 229 - D 205 - I 1	R 51 - D/I 49

Methodology and Sources

METHOD. Regular contests are grouped by office, cycle, state, and district. Every candidate object in the archive is rendered. Vote and percentage fields are printed only when present. Presidential electoral allocations, special circumstances, certification status, incumbency flags, and prior-cycle comparisons are retained where available. The dense layout removes forced state page breaks but does not remove race data.

KNOWN LIMITS

- Congressional candidate ballot lines are collapsed to one candidate total; every resulting candidate record is retained.

- Final regular runoffs replace first-round regular general results.

- The 2002 House comparison crosses post-2000 Census redistricting; identical district numbers do not imply identical geography.

- The Senate race ledger describes seats contested in each cycle, not the full 100-seat chamber composition.

- Presidential county-unit data are aggregated to state totals. The 2000 District of Columbia abstention, 2004 Minnesota faithless elector, and 2008 Nebraska split are stored separately.

- The special-election section is a complete winner register from the FEC list. It does not claim complete candidate vote totals for those contests.
