NAVIGATION AND PRINTING

The printed contents links to every office and election cycle. The PDF outline continues through state and individual district or statewide race. Race blocks run continuously instead of forcing one state or contest onto its own page. Every candidate record retained in the archive appears with party, votes, share, and incumbent status when available.

Special-election records remain winner-level when the underlying archive contains no complete candidate tally. A dash means unavailable, not zero. Provisional or uncalled contests are labeled and are not converted into certified outcomes.

Administration term: 1963-11-22 through 1969-01-20. Archive snapshot: 2026-11-08T19:57:49.369Z.

Administration Analysis

Lyndon B. Johnson assumed the presidency after John F. Kennedy's assassination, then won a 1964 landslide that produced large Democratic congressional majorities. The 1966 midterm reduced those majorities without changing chamber control. In 1968, Johnson did not seek another term; Richard Nixon won the presidency in a three-way race while Democrats retained both chambers.

ELECTION	PRESIDENT	HOUSE AFTER ELECTION	SENATE AFTER ELECTION
1964	Democratic	D 295 - R 140	D 68 - R 32
1966	Democratic	D 248 - R 187	D 64 - R 36

Johnson won 486 electoral votes to Barry Goldwater's 52 and 61.1 percent of the national popular vote. The incoming House stood at 295 Democrats and 140 Republicans; the Senate at 68 Democrats and 32 Republicans.

SPECIAL-ELECTION REGISTER

The House Historian register identifies 24 special elections during the scoped administration. Two changed party: Albert Watson's South Carolina 1st seat moved from Democratic to Republican in 1965, and California's 14th moved from Republican to Democratic in 1966. Adam Clayton Powell Jr. won the 1967 New York 18th special election but declined to take the seat.

Methodology and Sources

METHOD. Regular contests are grouped by office, cycle, state, and district. Every candidate object in the archive is rendered. Vote and percentage fields are printed only when present. Presidential electoral allocations, special circumstances, certification status, incumbency flags, and prior-cycle comparisons are retained where available. The dense layout removes forced state page breaks but does not remove race data.

KNOWN LIMITS

- The official 1964, 1966, and 1968 Clerk publications are image-only scans. Structured state transcriptions are used for the searchable candidate ledger and are checked against official chamber outcomes and national recapitulations.

- Some state tables omit unopposed returns or contain partial local totals. Those contests retain the certified winner and reported share while unavailable candidate vote fields remain blank rather than being estimated.

- Hawaii elected two representatives from one statewide multi-member at-large ballot in all three cycles. New Mexico did the same in 1964 and 1966. Each seat is indexed separately, but each shared ballot is counted once in national vote aggregation.

- John L. McClellan was reelected to the Senate without an opposing general-election candidate in Arkansas in 1966. The state table reports no vote total, so the winner is retained without an estimated total or margin.

- The Senate race ledger describes seats contested in each cycle, not the full 100-seat chamber composition.

- The special-election section is a complete winner register for House special elections during the scoped term and does not claim complete candidate vote totals.

- Special elections held before Johnson's accession on November 22, 1963 are outside this volume. The 1968 regular election is included here as Johnson's transition election and also appears in the Nixon volume as Nixon's incoming election.
