NAVIGATION AND PRINTING

The printed contents links to every office and election cycle. The PDF outline continues through state and individual district or statewide race. Race blocks run continuously instead of forcing one state or contest onto its own page. Every candidate record retained in the archive appears with party, votes, share, and incumbent status when available.

Special-election records remain winner-level when the underlying archive contains no complete candidate tally. A dash means unavailable, not zero. Provisional or uncalled contests are labeled and are not converted into certified outcomes.

Administration Analysis

Rutherford B. Hayes entered office through the disputed 1876 election. Samuel J. Tilden led the source popular-vote ledger by 252,160 votes, but four states submitted disputed electoral returns. The Electoral Commission awarded all disputed electors to Hayes, creating the official 185-184 result. Hayes never held unified party control: the 45th House opened D 155 - R 136 - Independent Democrat 2, while the Senate stood R 40 - D 35 - Independent 1. The 1878-79 midterm kept the House Democratic but fragmented it with thirteen Nationals/Greenbacks and seven Independent Democrats; the Senate shifted to D 42 - R 33 - Independent 1.

ELECTION	PRESIDENT	HOUSE AFTER ELECTION	SENATE AFTER ELECTION

Methodology and Sources

METHOD. Regular contests are grouped by office, cycle, state, and district. Every candidate object in the archive is rendered. Vote and percentage fields are printed only when present. Presidential electoral allocations, special circumstances, certification status, incumbency flags, and prior-cycle comparisons are retained where available. The dense layout removes forced state page breaks but does not remove race data.

KNOWN LIMITS

- The 1876 presidential result was disputed in Florida, Louisiana, Oregon, and South Carolina. Congress created an Electoral Commission; it awarded the contested electors to Hayes, producing the official 185-184 result recorded by the National Archives.

- Tilden won the national popular-vote plurality in the structured ledger used here. Its 252,160-vote margin is source-specific because published historical compilations differ.

- Colorado's legislature selected the state's three presidential electors; Colorado therefore has an electoral-result card but no statewide presidential popular-vote total.

- House elections were not yet held nationwide on one uniform date. The first cycle spans June 1876 through March 1877; the second spans June 1878 through September 1879.

- The official 45th House division is D 155 - R 136 - Independent Democrat 2. Successful contests changed several initially returned seats; reconciled race notes identify those changes and suppress an election margin where the returned vote winner did not retain the seat.

- The official 46th House division is D 141 - R 132 - Other 20: thirteen Nationals/Greenbacks and seven Independent Democrats. Tammany labels are normalized to the official Democratic column except where the state summary classifies the winner as an Independent Democrat.

- Both regular cycles preceded the Seventeenth Amendment. Senators were generally selected by state legislatures, so no direct-popular Senate race ledger is printed; official opening Senate divisions are supplied in the administration-control table.

- District candidate totals come from the constituency-level structured ledger. The House party-division tables, annual election tables, and official annotated congressional rosters control winner identity and chamber classification when those sources conflict.

- The special-election section is a winner register rather than a claim of complete candidate-level returns. It contains six voting-seat elections during the 45th Congress and eight during the 46th Congress.
