NAVIGATION AND PRINTING

The printed contents links to every office and election cycle. The PDF outline continues through state and individual district or statewide race. Race blocks run continuously instead of forcing one state or contest onto its own page. Every candidate record retained in the archive appears with party, votes, share, and incumbent status when available.

Special-election records remain winner-level when the underlying archive contains no complete candidate tally. A dash means unavailable, not zero. Provisional or uncalled contests are labeled and are not converted into certified outcomes.

Administration term: 1913-03-04 through 1921-03-04. Archive snapshot: 2026-11-08T23:08:08.892Z.

Administration Analysis

Wilson won the fractured 1912 presidential election with 435 electoral votes and 41.86 percent of the source-ledger popular vote, then won reelection in 1916 by 277-254 in the Electoral College and a 578,160-vote popular margin. Democrats entered with unified control, retained the House in 1914, organized the closely divided 65th House after 1916, and lost both chambers to Republicans in the 1918 wartime midterm.

Wilson defeated Theodore Roosevelt and William Howard Taft 435-88-8 in the Electoral College. The source ledger records 15,037,797 national votes and a 2,169,053-vote Wilson margin over Roosevelt. The official 63rd House division was D 291 - R 134 - Progressive 9 - Independent 1. The 63rd Senate opened D 51 - R 44 - Progressive 1; senators were still generally selected by state legislatures, so no direct-popular Senate race ledger is printed for this cycle.

U.S. Senate Results

Every archived statewide Senate ballot contest is included. Short-term, full-term, and special general-election ballot lines remain separate when the archive records them separately.

1912 U.S. Senate

OFFICE	RACES	D WON	R WON	OTHER/U	D VOTE	R VOTE	MARGIN	UNDER 5
HOUSE	435	292	131	12	43.30%	34.86%	+8.44 D	92

Wilson defeated Theodore Roosevelt and William Howard Taft 435-88-8 in the Electoral College. The source ledger records 15,037,797 national votes and a 2,169,053-vote Wilson margin over Roosevelt. The official 63rd House division was D 291 - R 134 - Progressive 9 - Independent 1. The 63rd Senate opened D 51 - R 44 - Progressive 1; senators were still generally selected by state legislatures, so no direct-popular Senate race ledger is printed for this cycle.

Methodology and Sources

METHOD. Regular contests are grouped by office, cycle, state, and district. Every candidate object in the archive is rendered. Vote and percentage fields are printed only when present. Presidential electoral allocations, special circumstances, certification status, incumbency flags, and prior-cycle comparisons are retained where available. The dense layout removes forced state page breaks but does not remove race data.

KNOWN LIMITS

- The 1912 election preceded Wilson's March 1913 inauguration but is included as the election that created the administration and the 63rd Congress.

- The 1912 Senate section has no direct popular-election race ledger because the election preceded ratification of the Seventeenth Amendment. The official opening division of the 63rd Senate is supplied in the administration-control table.

- The official 1912, 1914, 1916, and 1918 Clerk publications are image-only scans. Structured state transcriptions are used for the searchable candidate ledger and checked against official chamber outcomes and national recapitulations.

- Some state tables omit unopposed returns or contain partial local totals. Those contests retain the certified winner and reported share while unavailable candidate vote fields remain blank rather than being estimated.

- Maine held its congressional elections in September in all four cycles. Presidential voting still occurred in November 1912 and 1916, so the Maine records combine separate official election dates without treating either as a duplicate.

- At-large and multi-member ballots are indexed as separate seats when required. A shared ballot is counted once in national vote aggregation. Pennsylvania's and Texas's incompletely transcribed multi-member rows use official member rosters to name every winner without inventing personal vote totals.

- The normalized race ledger and the official election-day party-division table answer different questions. Cross-endorsed, fusion, and affiliation-changing candidates can therefore make normalized party totals differ from the official House roster.

- The Senate ledger begins with the first broad cycle of direct popular Senate elections in 1914 and counts ballot contests, not only six-year seats. Separate short-term and full-term ballot lines are retained as separate contests.

- The special-election section is a complete winner register for voting House seats during the scoped administration and does not claim complete candidate vote totals. Territorial delegate vacancies are excluded.

- The 1920 regular presidential and congressional election is reserved for the Warren G. Harding volume to avoid duplicating a full regular cycle. The Wilson register ends with House special elections held through March 3, 1921.
