NAVIGATION AND PRINTING

The printed contents links to every office and election cycle. The PDF outline continues through state and individual district or statewide race. Race blocks run continuously instead of forcing one state or contest onto its own page. Every candidate record retained in the archive appears with party, votes, share, and incumbent status when available.

Special-election records remain winner-level when the underlying archive contains no complete candidate tally. A dash means unavailable, not zero. Provisional or uncalled contests are labeled and are not converted into certified outcomes.

Administration Analysis

Benjamin Harrison won the Electoral College 233-168 while Grover Cleveland led the structured national popular-vote ledger by 95,717 votes, or 0.84 percentage points. Republicans controlled the 51st Congress after extensive contested-election rulings and the admission of six new states, all seven of whose House seats were Republican. The 1890 midterm then reversed House control: Democrats won 238 of 332 seats, Republicans 86, and Populists eight. The Senate remained Republican throughout Harrison's term.

ELECTION	PRESIDENT	HOUSE AFTER ELECTION	SENATE AFTER ELECTION
1888	Republican	R 179 - D 152 - Labor 1 (includes seven statehood seats)	R 51 - D 37
1890	Republican	D 238 - R 86 - Populist 8	R 47 - D 39 - Populist 2

1888 ELECTION ENVIRONMENT

Harrison carried 20 states and 233 electoral votes; Cleveland carried 18 states and 168 electoral votes while winning the national popular vote. The 325-seat regular House ledger reconciles to R 172 - D 152 - Labor 1 after House contest determinations. Seven Republican statehood seats raised the official 51st House to R 179 - D 152 - Labor 1. The Senate reached R 51 - D 37 after the new-state delegations were seated.

Federal Special-Election Winner Register

Annual House-election tables and official House biographies provide the winner-level vacancy and statehood register. It excludes nonvoting territorial delegates; unavailable candidate vote totals are not estimated.

NOTE. Wyoming held parallel September 11, 1890 ballots for the unexpired 51st Congress and the full 52nd Congress term. This regular-cycle row uses the full-term tally; the unexpired statehood seat appears in the special register.

U.S. Senate Results

Every archived statewide Senate ballot contest is included. Short-term, full-term, and special general-election ballot lines remain separate when the archive records them separately.

1888 U.S. Senate

OFFICE	RACES	D WON	R WON	OTHER/U	D VOTE	R VOTE	MARGIN	UNDER 5
HOUSE	325	152	172	1	48.96%	47.18%	+1.78 D	75
SENATE	0	0	0	0	-	-	-	0

Harrison carried 20 states and 233 electoral votes; Cleveland carried 18 states and 168 electoral votes while winning the national popular vote. The 325-seat regular House ledger reconciles to R 172 - D 152 - Labor 1 after House contest determinations. Seven Republican statehood seats raised the official 51st House to R 179 - D 152 - Labor 1. The Senate reached R 51 - D 37 after the new-state delegations were seated.

1890 U.S. Senate

OFFICE	RACES	D WON	R WON	OTHER/U	D VOTE	R VOTE	MARGIN	UNDER 5
HOUSE	332	238	86	8	50.27%	42.99%	+7.28 D	81
SENATE	0	0	0	0	-	-	-	0

The midterm elected 332 representatives: D 238 - R 86 - Populist 8. Democrats gained 86 seats relative to the official 51st House division, while the Republican Senate opened the 52nd Congress at R 47 - D 39 - Populist 2.

Methodology and Sources

METHOD. Regular contests are grouped by office, cycle, state, and district. Every candidate object in the archive is rendered. Vote and percentage fields are printed only when present. Presidential electoral allocations, special circumstances, certification status, incumbency flags, and prior-cycle comparisons are retained where available. The dense layout removes forced state page breaks but does not remove race data.

KNOWN LIMITS

- The 1888 election preceded Harrison's March 1889 inauguration and is included as the election that created his administration and the 51st Congress.

- Both regular cycles preceded the Seventeenth Amendment. Senators were generally selected by state legislatures, so no direct-popular Senate race ledger is printed; official opening Senate divisions are supplied in the administration-control table.

- The 1888 regular-cycle ledger contains the 325 seats elected by the 38 states then in the Union. North Dakota, South Dakota, Montana, Washington, Idaho, and Wyoming added seven voting House seats after admission; those seats appear in the special/statehood register and bring the official 51st House total to 332.

- The 1888 ledger follows the official 51st House control after contested-election determinations. Race notes identify original certificate holders, service intervals, House awards, and the extraordinary Arkansas 2 vacancy created after the House ruled that murdered contestant John M. Clayton had won.

- The 1890 ledger contains all 332 full-term seats. Idaho and Wyoming elected representatives both to the unexpired 51st Congress and to the full 52nd Congress; the current-term seats appear in the statehood register and the full-term ballots remain in the regular ledger.

- The Clerk's continuous election-statistics PDF series begins in 1920. Searchable candidate tables therefore use structured historical transcriptions checked against official House, Senate, National Archives, Congressional Record, annual House-election, and historical roster controls.

- New York candidates labeled Tammany Hall Democratic are normalized as Democratic for national comparison. Populist, Labor, Union Labor, Independent, fusion, and other minor affiliations are normalized to OTHER while underlying labels remain visible in notes and source data.

- South Dakota elected two representatives on one statewide ticket. Each winner receives a separate seat row while shared candidate totals are counted once in national vote aggregation.

- The special-election section is a winner register rather than a claim of complete candidate-level vote returns. Its 23 rows include seven statehood seats and three party-changing successions.
