The printed contents links to every office and election cycle. The PDF outline continues through state and individual district or statewide race. Race blocks run continuously instead of forcing one state or contest onto its own page. Every candidate record retained in the archive appears with party, votes, share, and incumbent status when available.

Special-election records remain winner-level when the underlying archive contains no complete candidate tally. A dash means unavailable, not zero. Provisional or uncalled contests are labeled and are not converted into certified outcomes.

Administration Analysis

The 1880 Garfield-Arthur ticket won 214 electoral votes to Winfield S. Hancock's 155. The structured popular-vote ledger used in this volume gives Garfield a 7,823-vote lead, while published historical compilations differ. Arthur inherited a Republican House but an evenly divided Senate after Garfield's death left the vice presidency vacant. The 1882 midterm was a decisive House reversal: the chamber expanded from 293 to 325 seats, Democrats rose from the official 128-seat election control to 196, and Republicans fell from 151 to 117. Arthur then governed with a Democratic House and Republican Senate.

ELECTION	PRESIDENT	HOUSE AFTER ELECTION	SENATE AFTER ELECTION
1880	Republican (Garfield; Arthur succeeded on 1881-09-19)	R 151 - D 128 - Other 14	R 37 - D 37 - Independent 1 - Readjuster 1
1882	Republican (Arthur)	D 196 - R 117 - Other 12	R 38 - D 36 - Readjuster 2

1880 ELECTION ENVIRONMENT

The Garfield-Arthur ticket defeated Hancock-English 214-155 in the Electoral College. The official 47th House division was R 151 - D 128 - National 10 - Readjuster Democrat 2 - Independent 1 - Independent Democrat 1. The Senate opened 37 Republicans, 37 Democrats, one Independent, and one Readjuster; Vice President Arthur initially supplied the Republican tie-breaking vote.

1882 ELECTION ENVIRONMENT

The first post-census election expanded the House to 325 seats and elected D 196 - R 117 - Other 12. The Senate opened R 38 - D 36 - Readjuster 2. The midterm therefore replaced unified Republican control with divided government for the remainder of Arthur's term.

SPECIAL-ELECTION REGISTER

The administration register contains 23 voting-seat House vacancy elections from September 19, 1881 through March 3, 1885. Seven changed the party column. The register includes paired Ohio elections for the old and newly apportioned districts and Alabama 4's short-term vacancy election after the House voided the 1880 result.

Federal Special-Election Winner Register

Annual House-election tables, official congressional rosters, and the Congressional Record provide the winner-level vacancy register. It excludes nonvoting territorial delegates; unavailable candidate vote totals are not estimated.

U.S. Senate Results

Every archived statewide Senate ballot contest is included. Short-term, full-term, and special general-election ballot lines remain separate when the archive records them separately.

1880 U.S. Senate

OFFICE	RACES	D WON	R WON	OTHER/U	D VOTE	R VOTE	MARGIN	UNDER 5
HOUSE	293	128	151	14	47.32%	45.45%	+1.87 D	67
SENATE	0	0	0	0	-	-	-	0

The Garfield-Arthur ticket defeated Hancock-English 214-155 in the Electoral College. The official 47th House division was R 151 - D 128 - National 10 - Readjuster Democrat 2 - Independent 1 - Independent Democrat 1. The Senate opened 37 Republicans, 37 Democrats, one Independent, and one Readjuster; Vice President Arthur initially supplied the Republican tie-breaking vote.

1882 U.S. Senate

OFFICE	RACES	D WON	R WON	OTHER/U	D VOTE	R VOTE	MARGIN	UNDER 5
HOUSE	325	196	117	12	46.92%	40.73%	+6.19 D	91

The first post-census election expanded the House to 325 seats and elected D 196 - R 117 - Other 12. The Senate opened R 38 - D 36 - Readjuster 2. The midterm therefore replaced unified Republican control with divided government for the remainder of Arthur's term.

Methodology and Sources

METHOD. Regular contests are grouped by office, cycle, state, and district. Every candidate object in the archive is rendered. Vote and percentage fields are printed only when present. Presidential electoral allocations, special circumstances, certification status, incumbency flags, and prior-cycle comparisons are retained where available. The dense layout removes forced state page breaks but does not remove race data.

KNOWN LIMITS

- The 1880 election elected James A. Garfield president and Chester A. Arthur vice president. Arthur succeeded to the presidency after Garfield died on September 19, 1881; the election is included because it created the administration Arthur inherited.

- Published 1880 national popular-vote totals vary. The candidate and state ledger here is one internally consistent historical transcription; National Archives electoral totals control the constitutional result.

- California split its six electors: Hancock received five and Garfield one. The state race card therefore separates the electoral allocation from the statewide popular-vote winner.

- Both regular cycles preceded the Seventeenth Amendment. Senators were generally selected by state legislatures, so no direct-popular Senate race ledger is printed; official opening Senate divisions are supplied in the administration-control table.

- The Clerk's continuous election-statistics PDF series begins in 1920. Searchable candidate tables therefore use structured historical transcriptions checked against official House, Senate, National Archives, Congressional Record, annual House-election, and historical roster controls.

- The official 47th House division is R 151 - D 128 - Other 14. Multiple election contests changed who sat during the Congress; individual race notes identify crosscheck overrides and the Iowa 6 closing-day contest.

- The 1882 election followed the 1880 census and enlarged the House from 293 to 325 seats. California and Kansas elected multiple new members on statewide general-ticket ballots, while Maine elected all four members at large. Indexed seat records share one ballot identifier so national vote totals are not multiplied.

- The official 48th House division is D 196 - R 117 - Other 12: four Readjusters, three Independent Democrats, two Independents, two Nationals/Greenbacks, and one Independent Republican. Fusion labels are normalized to those official party-control columns.

- The special-election section is a winner register rather than a claim of complete candidate-level vote returns. Its 23 rows exclude the nonvoting Utah territorial-delegate contest and include Alabama 4's November 1882 vacancy election omitted from the annual table.
